About Automobiles and Automobilists

ONE motorist who delights in rather than objects to bad roads is the automobile tester.

There is no more picturesque figure in the automobile industry than the road tester mounted on a stripped chassis with a frail looking seat. He spends along city streets and open country roads the worst he can find, subjecting his car to all kinds of tests and turning it up as he may leave the factory in perfect running order. To the citizen, the tester is a nuisance. To the citizen, the tester is a nuisance. To the citizen, the tester is a nuisance.

L. M. McCrummen has entered his order with the Jay F. Knox Auto company for a Chalmers "Six" torpedo.

J. M. Barnes, of Montana street, has purchased a five passenger Ford from J. V. Flinn, of the local agent. The car was delivered this week and is fully equipped. The body of the car is black.

A. Soward and family have arrived in El Paso by automobile from Dalhart, Texas, to Phoenix. He and his family are traveling in two automobiles, one a Buick, and the other a seven passenger Buick. They are carrying a full camping outfit. They will remain in El Paso a few days, and are having their car overhauled before continuing westward.
